

NEW HAVEN USED FUNDS OF PUBLIC LIKE STAGE MONEY

Public through a railroad corporation as it is personally to rob an individual.

Of all the millions lost to New Haven stockholders, the commission estimates that possibly $5,000,000 may be recovered by proper action. Evidence in its possession tending to show violations of the laws of New York, Massachusetts and Rhode Island has been turned over to the proper executives in those States.

The Department of Justice has been furnished with a complete record of the testimony secured by the commission, but there is no Federal statute under which the government can aid the stockholders in recovering any of their losses. A suggestion is made that any expenditures in violation of the antitrust law were beyond the powers of the directors and raised the question of whether the directors may not be held personally responsible to satisfy any losses which resulted.

SERVE NO PURPOSE BUT AN EVIL ONE

In its investigation the commission found that the New Haven had 224 subsidiary corporations, many of which served no purpose except "an evil one." The report, pointing out that on the New Haven board were representatives of the Pennsylvania Railroad, the New York Central, the United States Steel Corporation, the Standard Oil Company, the Pullman Company and many other interests, says that interfering directors of this sort cannot be too strongly condemned.

This, it was suggested at the Capitol during the day, probably will have its effect upon the trust legislation now before the Senate, and may end the talk about leaving the provisions aimed at the railroad directors out of all the State and antitrust legislation.

The commission discusses the question of immunity which may have been given to witnesses against criminal prosecution by the government, which will be the subject of a bill to be introduced in the House of Representatives. It declares that only such witnesses as are necessary are needed, and that such evidence of "wrongdoing" as was disclosed is difficult to conduct in secret and in the dark, and finds full justification for its action in the public disclosure.

The insuring of honesty through the management of the great railroads is a question that the people are today asking, and the report in conclusion, "and which is a matter of public conscience, coupled with effective laws that results are produced, may be said to have placed on the New Haven the burden of its own guilt. The revelations in this record make it essential for the welfare of the nation that the reckless and profit-making system be ended, and that the assurance that the story of the New Haven will not be told again with the same results as the other railroad system as the victims."

MORGAN & CO. SHOW

Evidence that agents of the commission did not have an easy time securing information it desired, was contained in an appendix filed with the report on July 10. E. B. Brown, counsel of the commission, wrote to Commissioner McHardy, who has directed the investigation, that the records of the New Haven had not been made in a friendly spirit by J. P. Morgan & Co. and that full access to the Morgan records had not been granted him as he had been promised, and he was unable to say whether he had been allowed to inspect all New Haven transactions on their books, and was given only such correspondence as the company wished.

How to Get Rid of Eczema

Your Blood Must be Right if Skin is to Heal

Working outwardly through a myriad of very small blood vessels, the famous blood purifier, S. S. S., cleanses the skin new material for its regeneration. And as these new materials keep up a flood of action, they keep crowding out the scales or patches of eczema, now smooth skin form beneath all destructive germs cease to withstand the constant healthful influence of S. S. S. and the most baffling case of eczema just dries up and is gone forever. You can't cure eczema by smearing the skin; you can relieve the itch and burn but to cure it the blood must be right. There is no getting away from this fact.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. today of any druggist then write for a copy of "The Mirror Tells" published by The Swift Specific Co., 112 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. What to Avoid in Hot Weather

Carlessness Causes Many Ills.

Avoid iced drinks, impure water, unripe food, and eat sparingly of meat. In hot weather excessive thirst causes many people to indulge in iced drinks and other iced beverages, to the detriment of the stomach. Physicians are unanimous in declaring that iced drinks, impure water and unripe food cause the major portion of such distressing ills as Diarrhoea, Cholera, Malaria, Typhoid, Cramps and stomach aches prevalent at this season. If you would avoid these distressing complaints begin at once the use of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It is conceded by many physicians to be a most valuable disease preventive. If taken in tablespoonful doses in equal amounts of water or milk before meals and on retiring you can be reasonably sure of protection from disease incident to summer weather. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is absolutely pure, being made from clean, selected grain, thoroughly malted. Its freedom from injurious substances renders it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach. Don't fall to have Duffy's hand at all times. It is your nearest doctor in case of emergency. Follow the example of thousands of others. "Get Duffy's and Keep Well." Duffy's is sold in sealed bottles only, $1.00, and is obtainable at most druggists, grocers and dealers. Write for medical booklet. The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.
